Joining Little Life Warrior Society team visit to children with cancer

St Andrews Church members have been joining the Little Life Warrior Society* (LLWS) team to visit cancer children bi-monthly and spread the message of 'Love, Hope and Faith'. Children with cancer are ordinary kids who live extraordinary lives. We pray with them or for them to seek God for his guidance and blessing. These children are so brave to fight the battle against Cancer- Living a Better Life and Giving Back to the Community.

A small team of four volunteers started bi-monthly visit after Christmas outreach at the hospital last year. Volunteers get involved in: preparing hygienic and tasty food for child patients in the day ward; sharing food with the children and their parents; praying for the children and their families for God to give them strength to go through this challenging period of their life. This helps in relaxing, getting to know each other and to bring hope to the children and the families concerned. They need our laughter, our trust and care, or simply to pray for them after each visit.

In the past year, we have come across more than 100 children with their own individual stories, but one thing they all have in common - is "HOPE". After each visit, we prayed together for these little ones and their families. It was remarkable to see some of their faith and attitude to their situation was so positive. God is so faithful and so good to answer our prayers, and many of them were able to return to an ordinary life again.

Your pair of hands and your heart can make a cancer child live an ordinary life full of love and hope. If anyone feels the calling to join this group please contact Jenny Hsia (jennykkliau@yahoo.com) for further information.

God Bless! Your sister in Christ,
